Arisaig Renews 20-Year Partnership with HSBC Singapore

HSBC Singapore (HSBC) and Arisaig Partners (Arisaig) are delighted to announce the appointment of HSBC as Arisaig's fund administration and custody partner.

Arisaig and HSBC have a long-standing and trusted relationship. The HSBC Securities Services team has collaborated with Arisaig since their first fund launch in 1996. The experience, knowledge, flexibility and passion of both teams have resulted in a fruitful and successful two-decade long partnership.

Besides fund administration and custodial duties, HSBC has also supported Arisaig through credit facilities, foreign exchange services, benchmarking and global liquidity management.

"We are proud to have been Arisaig Partners' primary service provider since 1996. Together, we have a first-class track record of success." said Tony Lewis, area head of HSBC Securities Services.

Mr Lewis added, "We are excited by the prospect and potential of the next 20 years with Arisaig. Our expertise and knowledge of the business enables us to provide solutions that will help grow Arisaig's business."

"Our heartfelt appreciation goes to HSBC for their exemplary service over the past 21 years." Said Chua Chee Seng, Partner and CFO of Arisaig Partners.

Mr Chua added, "We invest in the aspirations of emerging market consumers and the global outreach of HSBC provides a strong foundation for our team to focus on creating sustainable long term returns for our investors."
